

Course name: Gateway to Web Design

How many weeks is the course? 10 weeks. Classes start in September, January and February. For dates and times of the next courses please phone 02072756750.

What do I need to know before I start the course?

- Literacy Entry level 3
- Basic knowledge of using computers
- Pass the initial assessment done during IAG

What Qualifications will I get?

City & Guilds Certificate for IT Users (Standard) Level 1

Which modules will I cover?

- IT Principles (001)
- Creating Web Pages using HTML (009)
- Presentations (006)

What else could I do on the programme?

- Job Search (Employability Skills)
- National Level 1 Literacy and Numeracy
- Use of Dreamweaver in creating websites

How is the learning Marked/Assessed?

- You will be marked for each module through an assignment (3)
- Online Multiple Choice Question Paper for IT Principles (1)
- Online Test for National Level 1 Literacy and Numeracy each (2)

What are other Soft Skills that I will Learn?

Key skills

- Communication
- IT
- Working with others
- Improving own learning
- Problem Solving
- Organization and Planning

What can I do next?

- Level 2 Web Development
- Level 2 Software development
- Level 2 Office Skills

Please note

Progression within ELATT is available if your attendance is satisfactory and you have passed the Level 1 exam. Additionally you will have to pass the initial assessment to progress to Level 2, this will also determine which Level 2 course is appropriate for you.